

Questionnaire: MicroStar - Konvoy

MN-30003

Deadline to respond: 2 March 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing MicroStar Logistics LLC's (MicroStar) proposed acquisition of certain assets of Konvoy Holdings Pty Ltd (Receivers and Managers Appointed) (Konvoy) (the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 2 March 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Submission re: MicroStar - Konvoy. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: MicroStar - Konvoy. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

In this questionnaire:

Keg pooling services refers to a service in which customers can rent a keg for a single fill. When the keg is emptied, the empty keg is then collected by the keg rental company, which can then rent the keg out to another customer.

1. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with MicroStar or Konvoy.

2. Outline any concerns you have regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition.

Questions for customers of MicroStar or Konvoy

3. In the event that you were not able to access keg pooling services or the price for keg pooling services increased substantially, what impact would this have on your business? How would you respond? What options are available?

4. In the last six (6) months, have you experienced any changes (in terms of price, or quality or nature of services) to the supply of keg pooling services or keg leasing services you access from MicroStar or Konvoy? If so, please provide details on the nature of those changes.

Questions for competitors or potential competitors of MicroStar or Konvoy

5. Does your organisation compete with MicroStar or Konvoy in their supply of key pooling services? If so, describe the services you supply in competition with them. If not, is your organisation interested in providing keg pooling services, why/why not?

6. Please describe what is involved in entering and expanding in the supply of keg pooling services. If known, please provide details on the assets and supporting facilities necessary to enter or expand. Do you consider that the Acquisition will change the ease or difficulty of commencing the supply of key pooling services?

Other issues

7. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's interim merger process guidelines.
